Wake up to views of La Reserva Club, Sotogrande, the Mediterranean, and Africa. The 15 is a private community within La Gran Reserva, offering unique sites for your dream home, all set within a stunning park developed by world-renowned landscape architect Jean Mus.

Each property spans approximately half a hectare and includes options for concierge lifestyle and property services, providing the perfect conditions for enjoying your leisure time.

The villas foster interaction between architecture and the natural environment, creating distinct, unique spaces. We offer a selection of designs by internationally renowned architects.

The 15 residences share a landscape crafted by the highly respected designer Jean Mus, commissioned to bring Provence to Andalucía. He created a genuinely beautiful and informal parkland that provides both privacy and a natural setting for homes.
