This is a truly exquisite property, surrounded by natural beauty and situated in the exclusive gate 6 of El Madronal. The designer of this unique house spent years creating this stunning home with salvaged wooden doors, lintels and stone floors and Provencal style decor. Every room is filled with charm from the double height entrance hall through to the spacious dining room and lounge each with their own stone fireplace and designed with a cozy ambiance. The ground floor also has a cinema room with office annex, guest cloakroom and a large beautifully fitted kitchen and additional chef's kitchen. Each of the 5 spacious bedrooms are unique in their design from the "Chapel" style suite with vaulted ceilings, to the breath-taking master bedroom complete with study, 2 dressing rooms and spacious ensuite making it in excess of 100m2. With the addition of a self-contained apartment this home offers an abundance of space. The house has been cleverly designed to admire the surrounding beauty from the many terraces that offer al fresco dining or simply a relaxing viewing point over the National Park mountains and out to the Mediterranean Sea. This house is truly a must see to appreciate its stunning and unique beauty.
