The development is an exclusive gated enclave of just 28 designer residences, thoughtfully distributed across four boutique buildings with a maximum of three floors. This low-rise concept ensures that the project blends harmoniously into its natural surroundings, offering the perfect combination of apartments and penthouses to suit a variety of lifestyle needs.

Each nature-inspired residence features expansive open and covered terraces with uninterrupted panoramic views of the ocean. In addition, the homes benefit from private access to a sun terrace from the main entrance, complementing the internal staircase typically found within the property.

The development boasts generously landscaped outdoor communal areas, carefully designed with native aromatic plants, drought-tolerant shrubs, and low-water trees. All pedestrian paths and garden spaces are adapted for people with reduced mobility, ensuring accessibility for everyone.
